

Cleeve Horne Home

1940-1950 Concession 8, Brougham

Saturday, October 5, 2013

Did you Know?

Cleeve and Jean Horne built this house, described as a hyperbolic paraboloid, in the 1950s, as an artist's getaway.

It is situated in a natural valley, east of Claremont. The house is a unique architectural treasure, representative of the talent and creativeness of its world-renowned artist owners.

